VERDICT FOR $10,000 DAMAGES.

Angelo Bulduzzi Had Eyesight Destroyed While Blasting for Ramage Paper Co. at Readsboro.

The May term of the United States Circuit and District courts has been in session in Festival hall since Tuesday morning, and the attendance has num-bered 75 or more each day, including the court officers, jurors, witnesses and spectators. Judge Hoyt H. Wheeler of Brattleboro is presiding, and the court officers present are George E. Johnson of Burilington, circk, James I. Martin of of Burlington, clerk, James L. Martin of Brattleboro, district attorney, Horace W. Bailey of Newbury, marshal, F. H. Chap-man of Rutland, deputy marshal, R. E. Gordon of Brattleboro, crier, Luke Parish of Randolph and E. R. Thayer of Brat-tleboro, bailiffs,

Court convened at 9.30 o'clock Tuesday and a jury was impanelled in the case of Angelo Bulduzzi of Readsboro against of Angelo Bulduzzi of Readsboro against the James Ramage Paper company of Monroe Bridge, Mass. The attorneys in this case were Charles S. Chase of Whitingham and Clarke C. Fitis of Brattleboro, for the plaintiff, and A. P. Carpenter of North Adams and Waterman & Martin of Brattleboro, for the defendant. The Jury consisted of George L. Church of West Fairlee, C. B. Titus of Vershire, S. N. Houghton of St. Johnsbury, B. H. Phinney of Woodstock, C. W. Hodges of N. Houghton of St. Johnsbury, B. H. Phinney of Woodstock, C. W. Hodges of Bandolph Centre, J. M. Eastman of West Fairlee. J. W. Fargo of Randolph Centre, V. cover damages in the sum of $15,000 for personal injuries. He is an Italian. On Feb. 12, 1902, while quarrying stone in Readsboro, a blast was fired, but one of the dynamite charges did not explode. Bulduzzi attempted to dig out the charge with a drill, and while so employed the dynamite exploded, rendering him totally blind. Counsel for the plaintiff charged that he was employed by the Ramage Paper company, and that it was through the negligence of the man in charge of the work, the foreman being away, that Paper company, and that it was through the negligence of the man in charge of the work, the foreman being away, that the plaintiff was injured, the plaintiff knowing nothing about dynamite. The stone which was being blasted was for rebuilding an abutment for a highway bridge between the towns of Rowe and Monroe. Mass., near the Ramage Paper company's plant. The plaintiff claimed that the defendant was the contractor that the defendant was the contractor for the quarrying, and the bills for goods and supplys bought, also the pay roll, were in the name of the defendant com-Mrs. Lulu Rawson and son have visited t S. Mr. Chase opened the argument for the plaintiff Wednesday afternoon. He was followed by Judge Waterman for the defendant, after which court adjourned to yesterday morning. Mr. Martin closed for the defendant and Mr. Fitts made the closing argument for the plaintiff.

Judge Wheeler's charge to the jury was finished just before adjournment yesterday noon. At 2 p. m. the case went to the jury, and just before 5 o'clock they returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover $9000 damages. It is not improbable that the case will be taken to the circuit court of appeals.

While the jury was considering this case the suit of Mrs. W. D. Stockwell against the Boston & Maine Railroad company was taken up and another jury was taken up and another jury was impanelled, consisting of these men: Fred I. Swift of Brattleboro, J. A. Mc-Leod of Hardwick, E. H. Atherton of Cavendish, L. T. Kimball of Windsor, C. H. Eddy of Guilford, Don. C. Pollard of Cavendish, W. E. Best of West Windsor, Fred I. Davis of North Pomfret, Edwin W. Hurtley of Extract Blobard E. Davis W. Huntley of Putney, Richard F. Darl-ing of Newbury, G. A. Wilder of Guil-ford and Arthur F. Roberts of Brattleboro. The plaintiff's attorneys are C. C. Fitts and F. D. E. Stowe of Brattleboro, and the defendant's counsel is W. B. C.

Stickney of Bethel.
In this suit the plaintiff seeks to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for the death of her husband, which took the death of her husband, which took place June 29, 1962. Mr. Stockwell had been to North Newport, N. H., to see Mrs. Stockwell, who was visiting there. When he boarded the train for home he went into the baggage car to get his baggage checked, there being no baggage master at the station. Then he started to go into a passenger car, and while on the platform between the two cars the train reached a sharp curve, about a train reached a sharp curve, about a mile from the station, and Mr. Stockwell was thrown to the ground, the gates at the end of the car being open. One man said Thursday that out of hundred One man said Thursday that out of hundreds of dollars paid out, no one had benefitted him until he tried Prof. Wilkina: he already feels like a new man. A rheumatic, crippied and drawn out of shape, got help in the first treatment. A child with paralysis cured. A poor woman receives her sight. Deafness cured for several others. A tumor reduced one-third in one treatment. Organic troubles without number treated and cured.

Now is the time for you to be made well. Will you accept it? Cures are positive and permanent; aches and pains vanish like magic. Your case may have been neglected and given up by the medical faculty. Remember Prof. Wilkins challenges the case he cannot affect.

Remember the days and place, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week. Offices on North Hinsdale road not five minutes' walk from station. Prof. Wilkins's address will be Brooks House, Brattleboro, for the present Call or write; enclose stamp for reply.

Vermont Separated From $270. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simonds returned Tuesday after a visit of two weeks with their daughter, Mrs. George Whitney, in Joseph Simard of Websterville, Vt., ing for work. He had with him in cash $270 in cash. He fell in with Henry Roulard of Nashua, and after spending the night with him rode about the town in a hack. Wednesday noon he came to the police station and said he had been robbed. Roulard and August Gagnon were overtaken and arrested as they were driving out of town on the Hookset road. Southington, Conn.

David Carey, David S. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Haus and Misses Mary and Marguerite Haus of Brattleboro and James F. Carey of Newport, this state, attended the funeral of Mrs. Edmund Carey in West Fitchburg Monday. Roulard had $197 in cash upon his person. All three men are held at the station.

The expectation that the teamsters strike in Chicago would be settled this week has not been realized. The strike has extended to the lumber district, where several hundred teamsters went out Tuesday. The possibility of violence is considered to be greatly increased by this event. The failure of settlement of the strike is due to the refusal of certain employers to take back the discharged men, the unions demanding that the strikers who have conducted themselves in an orderly way shall be reinstated. The expectation that the teamsters by Misses Mary and Neille Grady, who will move there from 16 Canal street. Fred Whidden, who lives in the house with the Misses Grady will take the tenement vacated by them, and the one where he lives will be taken by Will Bradley, who now lives in the Morse bouse on Clark street.
